Principles of Good Governance and Meritocracy

- GDT has strictly adhered its institutional development process based on the Government's in-dept reform program and the international practice Principles of Good Governance and Meritocracy.
- GDT has adopted five principles of Good Governance:
 - Principle 1: Understanding the organization's functions in delivering its purposes professionally
 - Principle 2: Maintaining control over the organization comprehensively
 - Principle 3: Being transparent and accountable
 - Principle 4: Working as an effective team
 - Principle 5: Acting with integrity

Principles of Good Governance and Meritocracy

- Principle 1: Understanding the organization's functions in delivering its purposes professionally
 - Setting and upholding the vision, purposes, and core values by making sure they remain relevant
 - Developing, resourcing, monitoring and evaluating plans to make sure that the organization achieves its stated purposes
 - Managing, supporting and making staffs accountable willingly to volunteers and act on behalf of the organization
- The Principle was reflected in the GDT's Strategic Plan by setting clear vision, mission, value, goals and objectives.

Principles of Good Governance and Meritocracy

Principle 2: Maintaining control over the organization comprehensively

- Identifying and complying with all laws and regulatory requirements
- Implementing appropriate up to date internal financial and management controls.
- Identifying major risks for organization and deciding ways of managing the risks

- GDT develops and monitors organizational plans and budgets by making proper arrangements for the recruitment, remuneration, supervision, support and appraisal of all staff including the most senior member of staff.
- For daily performance and mitigating risks, GDT develops ToR for each tax unit and Standard Operating Procedure (SOP)

Principle 3: Being transparent and accountable

- Identifying those who have a legitimate interest in the organization (stakeholders) and making sure there is regular and effective communication with them about the organization
- Responding to stakeholders' questions or views about the work of our organization and how we run it
- Encouraging and enabling the engagement of those who benefit from our organization in the planning and decision-making of the organization

➤ GDT closely collaborate with relevant national institutions, international organization, and private sector.

Principle 4: Working as an effective team

- Ensuring the governing body (Management Team), individual leadership members, committees, staff and volunteers understand their respective roles, legal duties, and delegated responsibility for decision-making
 - Ensuring the governing body share a collective responsibility through the management team meeting efficiently and effectively
 - Ensuring there is a managing committee and procedures of the recruitment, capacity building and retirement of its staff
- GDT sets up the HR committee for staff recruitment and development
- GDT holds regular management team meetings in which tax units could update work progress and raise their challenges.

- System for daily reporting of work performance
- System for self-evaluation
- SOP and De-merit system
