KEY CHALLENGES: ACCESS NEW MARKETS & IMPROVE PRICE-QUALITY COMPETITIVENESS

KEY CHALLENGE: INFRASTRUCTURE

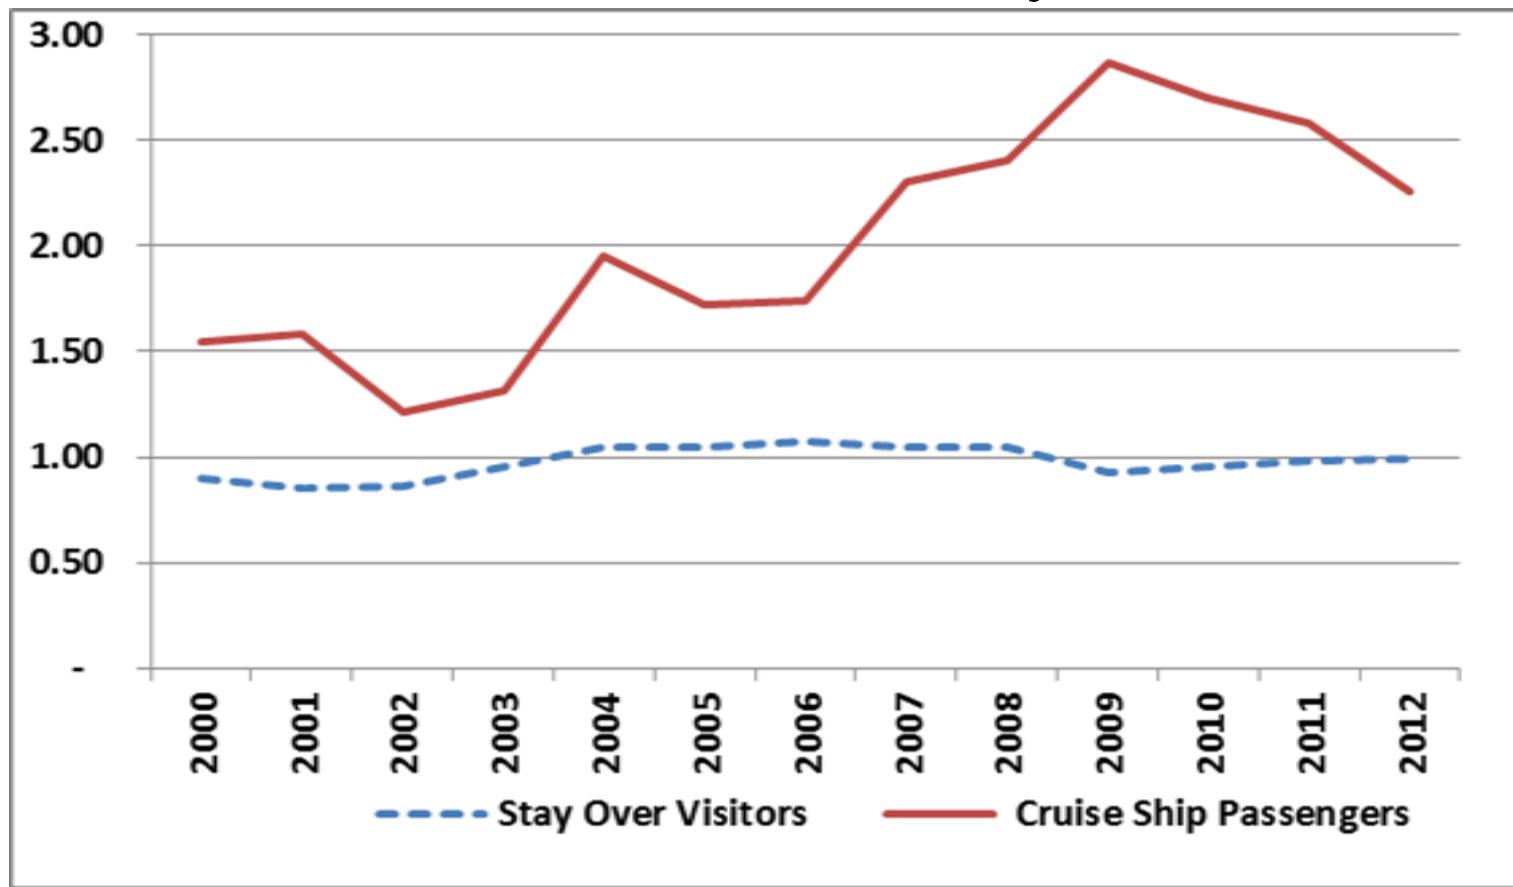

A recent assessment of OECS connectivity for the movement of goods and people found¹

- Connectivity is Limiting Tourism and Regional Integration
- System Coordination is a Constraint, Air Transport Infrastructure per-se is not
- Import Costs are a Constraint, Maritime Infrastructure per-se is not
- Inland Transport is an Emerging Constraint to Exports
- Subsidies to Airlines Introduced to Secure Flow of Tourists and Overcome System Inefficiencies
- Regional Coordination is Key for Success
- High energy costs directly impact price competitiveness

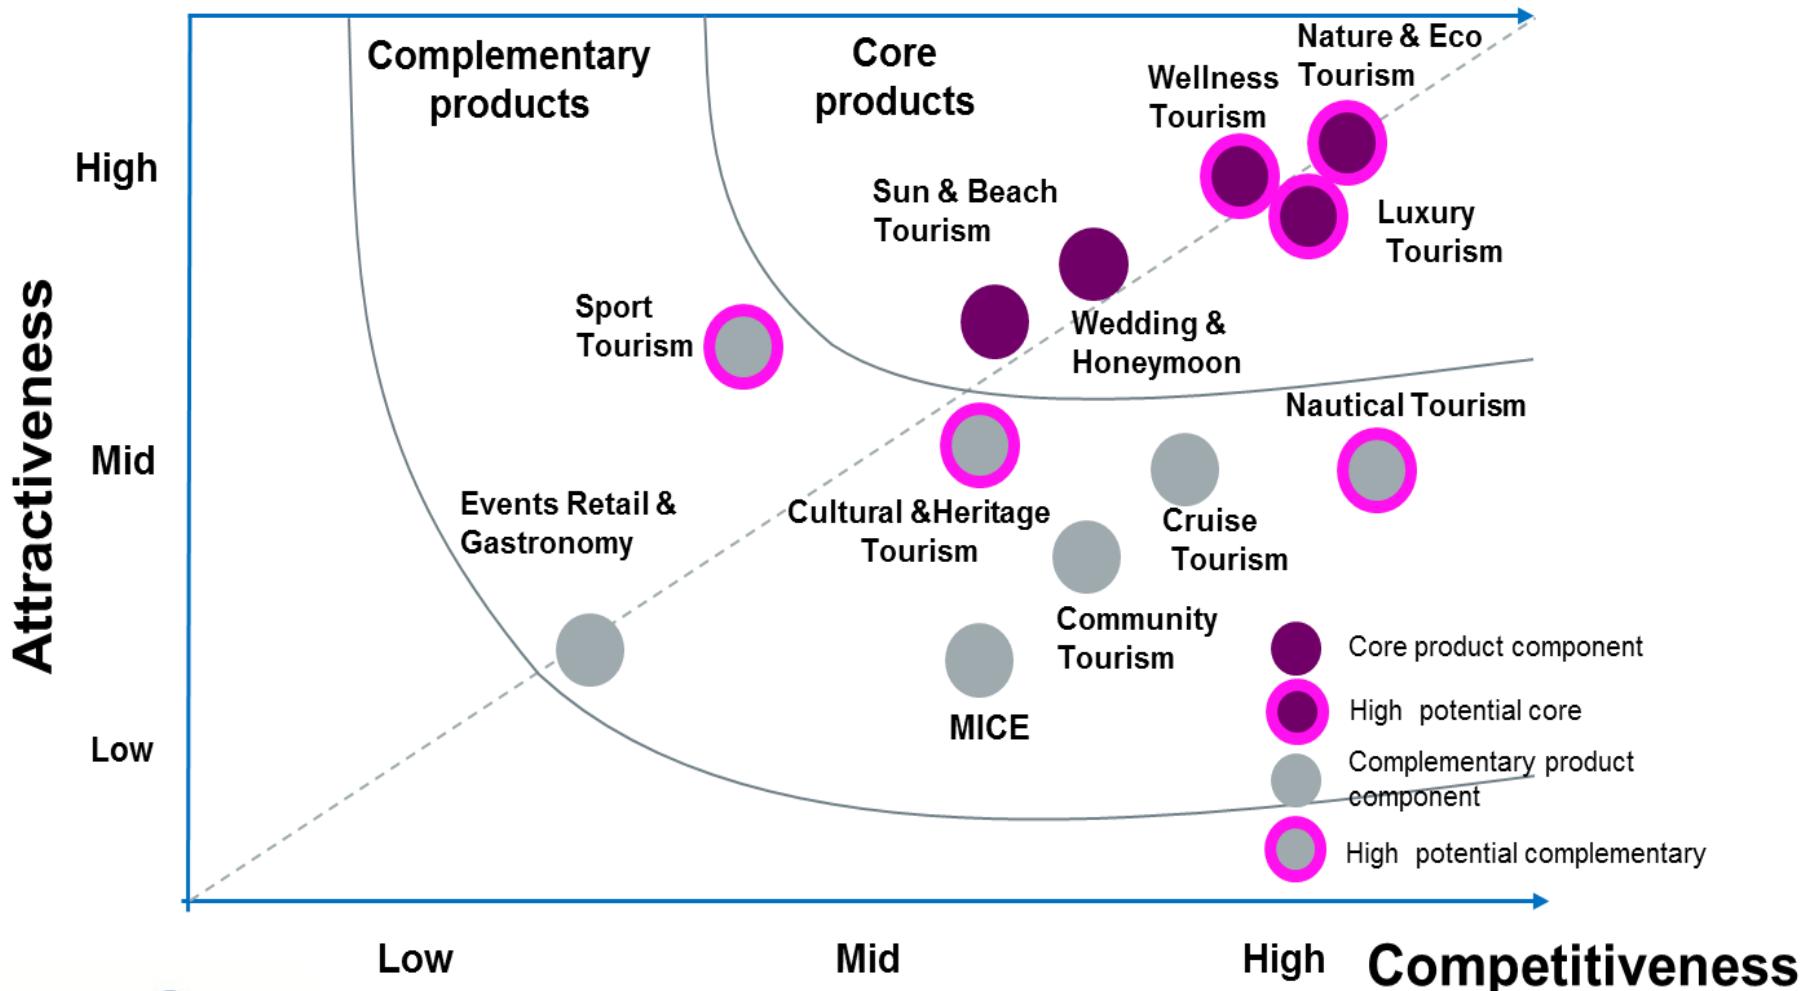

KEY OPPORTUNITIES: INCREASING TOURIST EXPENDITURES

KEY OPPORTUNITIES: TARGET COMPLEMENTARY NICHES STRENGTHENING LINKS TO THE LOCAL ECONOMY

ISSUES FOR DISCUSSION

KEY QUESTIONS FOR THE REGION GOING FORWARD

1. Can the region increase its competitiveness within the Caribbean and globally as tourist demand and sources markets evolve?
2. Will the sector's performance be robust enough to trigger the level of economic growth required for sustainable development?
3. How can the EOCS tourism sector benefit of a regionally coordinated approach to the sector?

TAKEAWAYS

- While the tourism product is not homogeneous across the OECS countries, there are many common features and niches given the natural beauty of the islands – sea and sun, wedding and honeymoon, luxury, health and wellness, eco- adventure, and yachting. Most of these are growth areas identified by the UNWTO 2020 Future Trends Report
- In order to compete for investment and tourists in these niche segments, the OECS countries have to overcome considerable challenges in terms of product development, operational costs, skills, economies of scale infrastructure, investment attractiveness, business enabling environment, and regional (policy) coordination

THE WAY FORWARD... ACTIONABLE IDEAS

- Develop a strategic approach to tourism
 - Developing national tourism strategies → proposed at the CGF in the Dominican Republic and Antigua & Barbuda
 - Branding and marketing the OECS as a tourist destination
 - Develop and implement a regional tourism strategy
- Train semi-skilled and skilled workers and well-trained managers to deliver the service quality required by international tourism companies and visitors
- Mobilize the private sector through public-private partnerships (PPPs) and other financing vehicles – particularly for large infrastructure investments
- Introduce a regional coordinated approach to policy and investment decisions

THE WAY FORWARD... ACTIONABLE IDEAS

Streamlining national policies, incentives and harmonizing regionally to

- Eliminate discretionary and costly incentive policies
- Eliminate regional competition on incentives
- Target product development and attract investment for strategic product development
- Reduce economic distortions
- Optimize revenue foregone
